Syllabus and Lecture Plan
SANT220: Anthropology, Intervention and Development
Spring 2017

Course responsible: Tord Austdal
Updated 31.03.2017

Part I: Introduction to the Anthropology of Development (two lectures)

Lecture 1: Introduction: Anthropological Approaches to Development

- Crewe, Emma and Richard Axelby

- Crewe, Emma and Richard Axelby

Lecture 2: Anthropological approaches to giving

- Eyben, Rosalind and Rosario Leon

- Mauss, Marcel

Part II: Poverty, Inequality and Development (four lectures)

Lecture 3: Poverty: How is it produced and how do we think about it?

- Broch-Due, Vigdis

- Brown, Marvin
Lecture 4: The Gendering of Poverty and Interventions

Murphy, Julia E.
2011 Feminism and the Anthropology of 'Development': Dilemmas in Rural Mexico.
http://search.proquest.com/docview/1768219000/fulltextPDF/8E31B736430E454FPQ/4?accountid=8579

Silberschmidt, Margrethe

Lecture 5: Development Interventions: Intended and Unintended Outcomes

Haney, Lynne

Loftsdóttir, Kristín
2009 Invisible Colour: Landscapes of Whiteness and Racial Identity in International Development.

Lecture 6: Oil for Development or the Effects of Oil Development?
Guest Lecturer, Marianna Betti

Reyna, Stephen P.

Stammler, Florian
Lecture 7: Participatory Development: Equal Collaboration between Unequal Partners?

Caldeira, Teresa Pires do Rio

Green, Maia

Willson, Margaret

Ystanes, Margit

Part III: Anthropological Debates and Contributions to Development Studies (two lectures)

Lecture 8: Discourse and Agency: Understanding Development Processes

Escobar, Arturo

Friedman, John T.

Ferguson, James
Lecture 9: Development Processes and Local knowledge

Nash, June

Sillitoe, Paul

Strønen, Iselin Åsedotter

Electronically available through university library with a UIB networked computer/VPN
Article/book chapter available for purchase at http://litteraturkiosken.uib.no
Book for purchase at university book store, or from your preferred online retailer
N/A